Mr. Fugitt's Fourth Grade Class

The Friday Four

"Four things Fourth Graders need to know this Friday"

Number 1: Make sure you can get onto Zoom and SeeSaw.

You should have your SeeSaw codes, and the Zoom link will always be the same for our class time. The specials teachers will have their own zoom codes. If you haven't already, try to get onto the other sites that were given in your packet, just to make sure all your logins and passwords work.

Number 2: Have your 'school space' ready.

It's important to have a place in your home that is comfortable and prepared for you during our zoom classes. You should have access to your school supplies that were picked up, as well as pencils, paper, colors, glue, and other typical school supplies. Try to have everything you need, so you won't have to bother your parents during our zoom classes.

Number 3: Be ready to learn at 9am on Monday.

When you sign on to our zoom classroom at 9:00am on Monday morning, I will be there to welcome you and see your smiling faces. Keep in mind that I have the same expectations of my students whether they are in my actual classroom or my zoom classroom. This means I expect you to be Attentive, Respectful, Giving, and Helpful. We will be going over the class rules and expectations on the first day, but remember that our behavior should always reflect the faith we represent as members of this Catholic school.

Number 4: Don't forget to pray.

This is a stressful time for all of us. I know that we are all doing our best, and that things can get overwhelming. If all else fails, take a deep breath and say a simple prayer to clear your mind and help focus on the most important things.

This week's prayer:

Psalm 95

Come, let us ring out our joy to the LORD;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come into his presence, giving thanks;
let us hail him with a song of praise.

A mighty God is the LORD,
a great king above all gods.
In his hands are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his.
To him belongs the sea, for he made it,
and the dry land that he shaped by his hands.

O come; let us bow and bend low.
Let us kneel before the God who made us,
for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand.
